

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

<http://gardenofpraise.com/miracle33.htm>

Draw lines to connect the sentences

As Jesus returned to the city would do greater things.

Jesus went over to the fig tree

he was hungry.

It was not the season

was withered and dried up.

Jesus said to the tree,

to look for fruit on it.

The next morning the tree

they could move mountains.

The disciples were shocked

"You will never again grow any fruit."

Jesus told them that with faith they ask for if they pray with faith.

He told the disciples that with enough faith

because the tree had died so quickly.

He said they would be given what they

for the tree to have figs on it.