Jesus had previously visited the city of Cana when he had attended a wedding feast there. We recall that he did his first miracle at Cana when he provided the wine for the wedding feast. Do you think people had talked about what had happened at the feast? No doubt the word had gotten around and people were aware of his great power to perform miracles.

He has returned to that city and a certain man, a nobleman, comes to him for help. His son is very sick in Capernaum, a town which is 20-25 miles from Cana. It is about a day's walk and uphill all the way. The nobleman has faith that Jesus can heal his son and asks him to come down to Capernaum because the boy is about to die.

Does Jesus go with the man? No, he doesn't go, but he says to the father, "Go your way, your son lives." The father believes the words of Jesus that even though he is miles away, he can do this wonderful thing for his child.

As he was going back to his home his servants meet him and say, "Your son lives!"

"When did he get well?" he asks. They told him that around noon, the seventh hour, the fever left him. That was the very time he had been talking to Jesus and Jesus had told him, "Your son lives!" The man and all his household believed in Jesus. What a demonstration of his power!
